

Cesare Sacchetti

Il ministro degli Esteri russo, Lavrov, ha affermato chiaramente che la Russia si separerà completamente dai residui legami finanziari con l'Occidente per intraprendere la strada dell'autarchia dei capitali. L'era della globalizzazione è terminata. È iniziata quella della deglobalizzazione.

Russia's solution:
Remove dependence.

"We will solve the problem – and the solution will be to no longer depend on our Western partners, be it governments or companies that are acting as tools of Western political aggression against Russia instead of pursuing the interests of their businesses."

"We will make sure that we never again find ourselves in a similar situation and that neither some Uncle Sam nor anybody else can make decisions aimed at destroying our economy. We will find a way to eliminate this depend. We should have done it long ago."

This sounds like the opposite of a one world government to me.

Soros must be pissed.
