Il giornalista investigativo americano Rense: "Un probabile crimine di guerra dietro l'attentato di Maduro"

« La parte di cui nessuno parla è che gli Stati Uniti hanno usato quella che è probabilmente un'ARMA ILLEGALE (CEM) per neutralizzare centinaia di soldati e poi sono corsi in giro e li hanno massacrati tutti mentre giacevano a terra in agonia. È chiaramente un probabile crimine di guerra ».

Questo è il commento del giornalista investigativo americano Jeff Rense, sul cui sito di notizie di ultima ora ho una rubrica...

Il giornalista investigativo americano Jeff Rense

« Le armi a campi elettromagnetici mortali (CEM) (o a energia diretta) non sono universalmente vietate , ma il loro utilizzo deve essere conforme al diritto internazionale umanitario (DIU), in particolare alle norme che vietano di causare lesioni superflue o sofferenze inutili (come i laser accecanti e le armi a campi elettromagnetici dolorose) o di prendere di mira i civili; se causano danni indiscriminati o gravi sofferenze non militari, potrebbero essere illegali o costituire crimini di guerra, sebbene trattati specifici per tali armi EMF avanzate siano ancora in fase di sviluppo » aggiunge Rense.

"Gli Stati Uniti hanno utilizzato armi soniche e DE", riportano i rapporti (Fox New, NYP, Defense News) condivisi da Leavitt

Le sue dichiarazioni arrivano dopo che un'inchiesta della Fox News ha rivelato l'uso di armi super potenti da parte della Delta Force nell'operazione Absolute Resolve.

«Una storia virale di un uomo che afferma di aver assistito all'operazione statunitense per catturare il presidente venezuelano Nicolas Maduro afferma che gli Stati Uniti hanno utilizzato armi soniche durante la missione per neutralizzare le forze avversarie», ha riportato Fox News.

White House press secretary Karoline Leavitt shared the eyewitness interview on X, encouraging her followers to read the statement. The witness in the interview claims to be a guard who was serving at the Caracas military base where the U.S. captured Maduro.

Before Defense News has reported:

«Venezuelan soldiers and security personnel loyal to President Nicolás Maduro have described a harrowing encounter with what they believe was a U.S. directed-energy or sonic weapon during a covert special operations raid, an incident that allegedly left troops bleeding internally, vomiting blood and physically unable to move».

«The claims, first reported by the New York Post, center on a secret operation in which a small, technologically advanced U.S. unit reportedly attempted to capture the Venezuelan leader. Although the United States has neither confirmed nor denied the operation, the vivid and technically consistent testimonies have triggered renewed scrutiny of classified acoustic and directed-energy weapons» Defense News added.

The Different Typology of EMF Weapons

EMF weapons (Electromagnetic Weapons) are directed-energy weapons (DEWs) that use focused electromagnetic energy (like microwaves or lasers) to disable or destroy electronic systems or physically affect targets, ranging from non-lethal area denial (Active Denial System) to high-power pulses that fry circuits (E-bombs, CHAMP) or provide precision strikes, offering advantages like speed, precision, and reversible effects for electronic warfare and defense.

In the VIDEO of the assault published below (published without official confirmation by the Navy Channel, very close to the US Pentagon news) we can see the launch by US Special Forces of an object inside a military facility that does not explode, which suggests that it is a new generation stun or electromagnetic grenade.

This may be an Electromagnetic Bombs (E-bombs): Deliver intense electromagnetic pulses (EMP) to disrupt or destroy electronics, causing heat damage without kinetic impact.

A typology of E-Bomb

The other weapons EMF are

- High-Power Microwaves (HPM): Use GHz frequency waves to overload electronic systems, from temporary disruption to permanent damage.
- High-Energy Lasers (HEL): Focus photons for precision targeting, capable of degrading, defeating, or destroying threats.
- Millimeter Wave Weapons (MMW): Use millimeter waves (like the Active Denial System) to heat skin, causing discomfort for area denial rather than permanent harm.
- Electronic Warfare (EW): Jamming, spoofing, or disabling enemy drones, communication, and guidance systems, as seen in conflicts like Ukraine.

The Video on Operation Absolute Resolve

«At 10:46 p.m. Eastern Standard Time on January 2, President Donald Trump gave the final authorization. With that decision, nearly 200 American operators from Delta Force and SEAL Team 6 would soon be on the ground in Caracas — and Nicolás Maduro’s grip on power would begin to collapse. What followed was not a spontaneous raid».

Thios wrote the Navy Channel on YouTube, publishing the awesome VIDEO below.

The unofficial footage is still very interesting, and the launch of an object into a military structure that doesn't explode suggests it's a new-generation stun grenade.

It was the execution of Operation Absolute Resolve, a mission refined over months, rehearsed repeatedly, and designed to move fast, stay hidden, and end decisively.

By the time most of Caracas was asleep, U.S. forces were already in motion. Across the Western Hemisphere, aircraft began launching from airbases and carrier groups, converging toward a single objective.

This operation did not begin inside a compound. It didn't begin with troops on the ground. It began with control of the air.
